

What is the MEF Community?

| | |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Question | What is the MEF Community? |
| Answer | Any individual that is an employee of a MEF member company (and has an active email address with an approved domain for that MEF member company) can become a member of the MEF Community by signing up (no cost, no obligations!) for the MEF Wiki. Today, there are nearly three thousand professionals in the MEF Community. If you haven't already done so, please join them now! |