MEF 46 - Latching Loopback Protocol

MEF 46 is a specification document developed by the Technical Committee of the MEF.

Abstract:

"This specification describes the use cases, functionality and protocol for a Latching Loopback feature in Ethernet Equipment. Latching Loopback can be controlled to return selected Ethernet frames in the direction from which they came."

Download

Status

PUBLISHED

Source(s)

Technical & Operations Committee Archive (MEF members only) |

Contributor(s)

Adva Optical Networking SE

Albis Technologies

Alcatel Lucent

AT&T

Broadcom

Calix

Carrier Ethernet Academy

Coriant

Ceragon Networks

China Telecom

Ciena Corporation

Cisco

Comcast

Embratel

EXFO Inc

Level 3

JDSU

Microsemi

Omnitron Systems Technology, Inc.

RAD Data Communications

Time Warner Cable

Transition Networks

Verizon Business